

WORD FAMILIES

WHAT ARE THE DIFFERENT PARTS OF SPEECH IN ENGLISH?

Verb

Noun

Adjective

Adverb

WHAT ARE THE MAIN PARTS OF A SENTENCE IN ENGLISH?

Subject+ verb+ object

e.g.

Doctors help people

OR

Subject+ verb+ compliment

e.g.

Doctors help at hospitals

LET'S MAKE OUR SENTENCE BETTER

Subject+ verb+ object+ compliment

E.g.

Doctors help people all the time

LET'S START WITH THE VERB

TYPES OF VERBS?

Main
verbs

Write
Eat
Help
Study
Work
Sleep
Travel

Helping
verbs

Verb “to be” (is/ am/ are/ was/were)

Verb “to do” (does/ do/ did)

Verb “to have” (has/ have/had)

Modal verbs (can/ may/might/ must/ will/ should/have to/ need to/ ought to)

WHEN DO WE USE A VERB IN A SENTENCE?

1. As the main verb of the sentence
2. After verb “to be” ----- verb+ ing.
3. After verb “to have” ----- past participle (V.3)
4. After modal verbs ----- infinitive verb
5. After adverbs
6. After “please” ----- infinitive verb

WHEN DO WE USE A NOUN IN A SENTENCE?

1. As the subject/ the object of the sentence
2. After articles (a/ an/ the)
3. After (some/ any/ all/ much/ many/ more/ most)
4. After prepositions (in/ on/ at/ under/ above/ for/ of....)
5. After possessive pronouns (my/ his/ her/ its/ our/ your/ their)
6. After adjectives
7. After “no”
8. Before another noun to make a compound
9. After (this/ that/ those/ these)

NOUN SUFFIXES

- ment: development, agreement, punishment
- ness: sickness, illness, happiness, darkness
- tion/-sion: mission, vision, education, introduction
- er/-or/-ee: teacher, visitor, actor, worker, trainer, trainee
- ism: tourism, criticism
- ity: loyalty, reality, possibility
- ist: scientist, artist
- ship: relationship, friendship

EXAMPLES

1. To be able to visit/ visitor a country, you need a passport and a visa.
2. The British govern/ government is not allowing people to enter the country.
3. You have only one choice/ choose in the exam.
4. The community have agreed/ agreement on the location of the new school.
5. Prevent/ Prevention is better than cure and medication.
6. The woman did not divide/ division the cake equally.
7. Social networks are invasion/ invading our private lives.
8. The earthquake destroyed the wall and blocked the enter/ entrance of the house.

WHEN DO WE USE AN ADJECTIVE IN A SENTENCE?

1. Before the noun to describe it.
2. After verb “to be”.
(is/ am/ are/ was/ were/ be)
3. After the verbs (look/ seem/ appear/ feel/ sound/ taste/ smell)
4. After “very”
5. In comparatives and superlatives (more.. than/ the most....)

EXAMPLES

The family moved to a beautiful house.

This is the scariest movie I have ever watched.

The food mom cooks is delicious.

The colour of my car is ugly.

That student looks tired.

The perfume shop smells wonderful.

ADJECTIVE SUFFIXES

-able: capable/ acceptable

-al: personal/ electrical/ musical

-ant: different/ important

-ful/-less: helpful/ powerless/ useful

-ic: dynamic/ economic/ organic

-ous: dangerous/ cautious

-ive: creative/ destructive/ expensive

-y: tasty/ windy/ salty/ sunny

WHEN DO WE USE AN ADVERB?

1. Before the verb to modify it.

e.g.

He carefully drove through the city

2. Before the adjective/ adverb to add emphasis

e.g.

The test was extremely difficult

That animal runs incredibly quickly

FILL THE SENTENCES WITH THE SUITABLE WORD FORM

1. The man was not very _____. (help)
2. I want to visit all _____ places in India. (interest)
3. There is no _____ proof that there is life in outer space. (science)
4. Living conditions in the village are very _____ (health)
5. You can _____ open this can. (easy)
6. Students showed a _____ positive change. (real)
7. _____ is very important for the economy of the country. (tour)
8. You can _____ a car in Palestine at the age of 18. (driver)
9. I have known Ahlam all my _____. (live)
10. The final match was the most _____ match of the season. All the people who watched it were very _____. (excite)
11. Making cake of a birthday is a _____ in many countries. (traditional)
12. Our plane is planned to fly _____ from Jordan to Canada (direct).