

SIMPLE SENTENCES 1

When we make simple English sentences, we usually have:

Subject-Verb-Object

OR

Subject- Verb- Compliment

OR

Subject- Verb- Object- Compliment

Types of subjects/ verbs in a sentence

1. Simple subject: Ahmad, players, teachers, schools.....
2. Compound subjects (subject + subject joined with and/ or): the dogs and cats/ the house or the car.....
3. A gerund noun (-ing form): swimming / reading / engineering / shopping
4. Infinitive noun (to + inf verb): to learn / to study / to speak
5. Noun phrase subject: the young woman in the car/ the house with green windows/ directions to the hospital / the man in the picture / the car I bought last week/ the heavy box/ the man wearing jeans/ the seven children

Paul often eats biscuits.

Marry ate two apples quickly.

My sister and her husband will travel to London.

The little boy cries and shouts all day.

All the people enjoyed the new film.

The police helped the old woman cross the street.

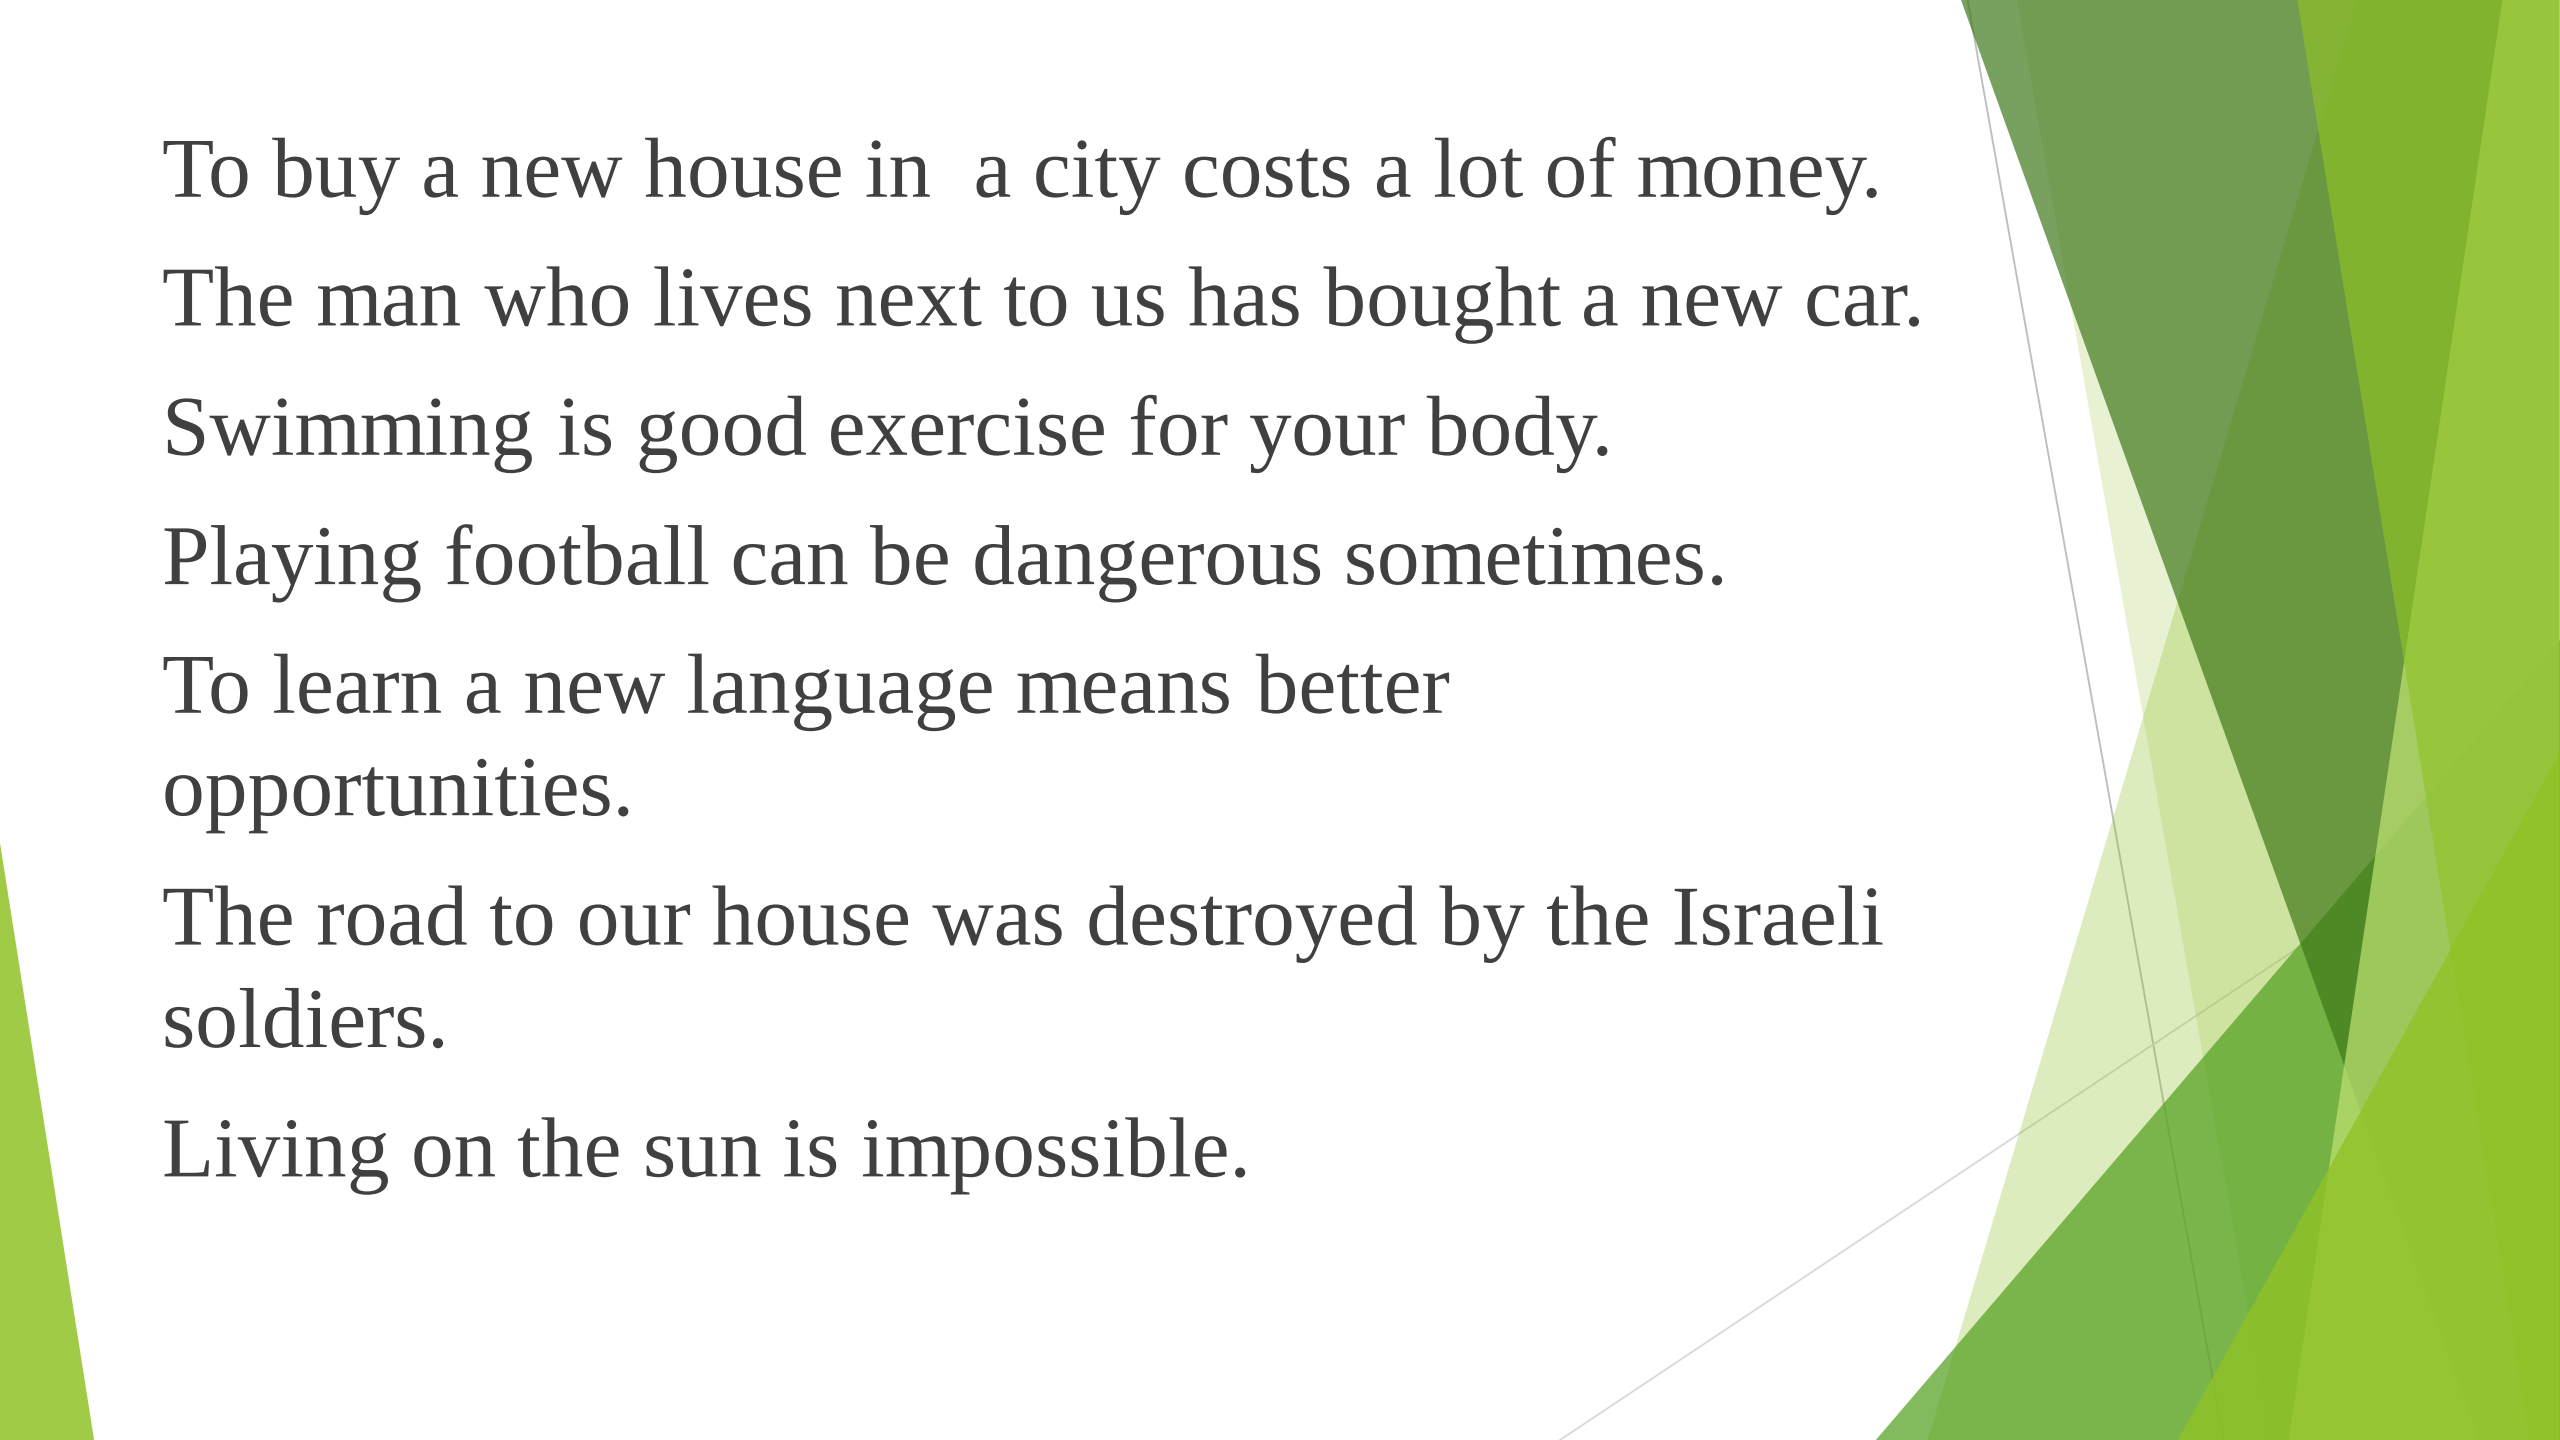

The cake was very delicious.

I gave my sister a birthday present.

The students asked their teacher a difficult question.

People usually live in buildings in a city.

The doctor has finished work at the hospital.

The background of the slide features abstract, overlapping geometric shapes in various shades of green, ranging from light lime to dark forest green. These shapes are primarily located on the right side of the slide, creating a modern, layered effect.

To buy a new house in a city costs a lot of money.
The man who lives next to us has bought a new car.
Swimming is good exercise for your body.
Playing football can be dangerous sometimes.
To learn a new language means better opportunities.
The road to our house was destroyed by the Israeli soldiers.
Living on the sun is impossible.